NEW HOSIERY.

BATURDAYAugust 27, 1892 CROSBY S. NOYES. Editor THE EVENING STAR has a regular and permanent circulation in Washington three times larger than that of any other paper is thecity. As a local NEWS paper and Adrerticing Medium it has no competitor.

The Washington subscribers of the publics tion called Once a Week, if there are any, will be interested in an editorial attack upon the capital in the current number. Commenting in a hostile vein upon the national interest in the development of the capital of today, Washington's critic rhetorically inquires: "Does the German government pay half the taxes of the city of Berlin? Does the French government pay half the taxes of the city of Paris?" For the enlightenment of this intelligent and patri-otic American it may be stated that the national government does pay taxes upon its property in Berlin, and if it does not pay one-half that is merely because it does not own onehalf of the total property. It may also be truthfully stated that if annihilation should happen to that portion of the street improvement and adornment of Paris which to the extent of millions of dollars has been paid for from the purse of France as distinguished from the exclusive purse of Paris the beautiful French capital would be largely deprived of its attractiveness. Those European capitals of today which are making the notable advances in beauty are developed in every instance by the nation and residents in conjunction. There is as much national pride in the American of 1892 as in the citizen of any European power. There is no European nation, not even Russia, which has been so completely the owner, so exclusively the ruler, so distinctively the acknowledged cres tor and pledge-bound guardian of its capital, as the American republic. It founded the capi-tal, planning a magnificent city in fields and pastures. It acquired by gift five-sevenths of the soil of the nation's city. It reserved to itself in the Constitution exclusive power of legislation in this city. In a dozen ways it indicated an intention to develop the city which it had planned, and upon the plan of which it sold lots. For three-fourths of a century the nation's city was a national disgrace, an object of ridicule and contempt to foreigners, a humiliation to every American. It is now, through aroused national pride and patriotism, a capital which all Americans may view with satisfaction, and subject without mortification to the inspection of strangers. No one who knows the hisfory of the nation and the nation's city and who has a spark of the patriotic national sentiment about him would wish it to be otherwise.

The difficulty of excluding the cholera is much greater in some respects here than in England, because of the greater extent of territory and smaller means at command of government. On the other hand the distance from the seats of infection is in our favor. First of all in the line of prevention, the cities and large towns must be cleansed, and by this is meant not only that the garbage should be collected and carried off, but that the streets and alleys ahould be kept in good condition, the purity of the water supply looked after very carefully and the health of the community safeguarded in all other respects. Second, and perhaps of equal importance, the inspection and tine of all vessels from inquarentine of all vessels from the borough. No immigrants and no travelers from Russis, Germany, France, Belgium, Engand or the far east ought to be permitted to land until they have been subjected to careful examination, and in the case of arrivals from an infected port until they have been, with all their personal belongings, quarantined for the accessary period and shown to be without appearance of the disease. The personal lib-arty of the traveler in times of peril is justly subordinated to the safety of the public.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat advises its friends of the republican party in Texas to ject the advice of those who counsel support of the "populist" ticket or nomination of a straight an ticket. It sees no chance for preng the victory of the Hogg or regular rats by either course, but is impressed by the view that an alliance of the republi with the Clark or young democratic faction will be effective. The Globe-Democrat thinks the curive element in democratic lone star tics is all in the Clark movement. To most siders it looks like a simple scramble for offices, although so far as the platform of principles is worth anything as an index the Clarkhave the advantage in that they are "agin the bill"-the free silver bill, that is,

The grade crossing manshaughter at Hyatta rille, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, in which two more lives were sacrificed, is another esson to the American legislator and the railroad itself. The case is directly in point. The two men were crossing the road in a wagon. If a whistle was blown it was not heard by persons in the vicinity. Not only so, the gateman had left and no light was burning. All the cirnces showed negligence. Even if the employes of the road were entirely exemp from responsibility the road would not be exempt, for it should long ago have abolished rossings on the level, at least in the cities and villages through which it passes. This work is a public necessity to which the roads should no longer be permitted to shut their eyes and

The slight disturbance of the serenity of en campment preparations recalls the proverb about the woman in the case. It also involves that familiar source of contention -money. It is to be hoped the project of "getting real mad and just showing folks" or words to that effect

The idea of charging garbage cart drivers for loss of time may have the effect of correcting the impression that has apparently developed in the minds of some that they are out driving for diversion.
